

I am writing to complain about Sinclair's forcing television stations to air one-sided political broadcasts before the election.

This is unfair. The airwaves should be used to promote education and two-sided (if not more) discussion of the issues.

This is a situation where the government needs to oversee the stations to make them act fairly or not act at all.